

Cookie Policy

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

Types of Cookies

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website, use a shopping cart or make use of e-billing services.
- Analytical or performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).
- Targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below:

Cookie Title Cookie Name	Purpose	More information
Technical (strictly necessary) cookies	Some cookies ensure that certain parts of the website work properly and that your user preferences remain known. These cookies allow you to use our site in a way that makes your browsing experience more convenient for example, by allowing you to store items in an electronic shopping basket between visits.
Functionality (necessary) cookies	If you register with us or complete our online forms, we will use cookies to remember your details during your current visit, and any future visits provided the cookie was not deleted in the interim.
Statistical Cookies	We use statistics cookies to optimise the website experience for our users. With these statistics cookies we get insights in the usage of our website. We ask your permission to play statistics cookies.
Marketing/Tracking cookies	Marketing/tracking cookies are cookies, or another form of local storage, used to create user profiles to display advertising or to track the user on this website or across several websites with similar marketing purposes. We store information about your preferences, and so allow us to customise our site and to provide you with offers that are targeted to your individual interests.
Social media buttons	On our website we have included buttons for LinkedIn to promote web pages (e.g. “like”, “pin”) or share) e.g. “tweet”) on social networks like LinkedIn. These buttons work using pieces of code coming from LinkedIn themselves. This code places cookies. These social media buttons also can store a process certain information, so personalised advertisement can be shown to you. Please read the privacy statement of these social networks (which can change regularly) to read what they do with your (personal) data which they process using these cookies. The data that is retrieved is anonymized as much as possible. LinkedIn is located in the United States.

Third Party Cookies

Please note that the following third parties may also use cookies, over which we have no control. These named third parties may include, for example, advertising networks and providers of external services like web traffic analysis services. These third-party cookies are likely to be analytical cookies or performance cookies or targeting cookies:

Consent

When you visit our website for the first time, we will show you a pop up with an explanation about cookies. As soon as you click on 'Save Preferences', you can consent to using the categories of cookies and plugins you selected in the pop-up, as described in this Cookie Policy. You can disable the use of cookies by your browser, but please note that our website may no longer work properly.

You can choose which analytical, functionality and targeting cookies we can set by clicking on the button(s):

Strictly essential cookies OFF

Analytical or performance cookies OFF

Functionality cookies OFF

Targeting cookies OFF

However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our website.

Except for essential cookies, all cookies will expire after 2 years.

Enabling/disabling and deleting cookies

You can use your Internet browser to automatically or manually delete cookies. You can also specify that certain cookies may not be placed. Another option is to change the settings of your Internet browser so that you receive a message each time a cookie is placed. For more information about these options, please refer to the instructions in the help section of your browser.

Please note that our website may not work properly for cookies are disabled. If you do delete the cookies in your browser, there will be placed again after your consent when you visit our website again.
